HONGKONG. APRIL 25TH; 18:14. RECTEE informs us to-day that a hugo army of the memployed in the United States is marching on Washington to de Colony or from our authorised Agents at the mand assistance from Congress, which is now in session. The movement had commenced when the last American mai' and the newspapers contain frequent references to it, couched for the most part in contemptuous and satirical terms, and it was evidently never expected that the army, which then numbered a few hundreds, would reach its present dimensions. The originator was one Coxer, who is described as a manof some wealth, but odd in his wave and chimerical in his notions. It is said that he considers the proposed peregrination which he has planned to be in some obscure some $15 and the other two $10 each.
